

The Pennsylvania Commonwealth Court Historical Society

is pleased to present

Civil Forfeiture in Pennsylvania: Is Possession Still 9/10ths of the Law?

A one hour Continuing Legal Education program (1 substantive credit) and Reception

Monday, May 12, 2014

4:30 – 5:30 p.m. CLE Program

5:30 – 7:00 p.m. Reception with PaCCHS Members and Commonwealth Court Judges & Staff

Commonwealth Court of Pennsylvania

Widener Building, 9th Floor

1339 Chestnut Street

One Penn Square

Philadelphia, PA 19107

Faculty

Honorable Mary Hannah Leavitt, Judge, Commonwealth Court of Pennsylvania

PENNSYLVANIA COMMONWEALTH COURT HISTORICAL SOCIETY

Civil Forfeiture in Pennsylvania: Is Possession Still 9/10ths of the Law?

(Approved for 1 CLE substantive credit)

Monday, May 12, 2014

4:30 – 5:30 p.m. CLE Program, 5:30 – 7:00 p.m. Reception

To register please detach and complete this form and send it with your payment (payable to Commonwealth Court Historical Society), to the Society's Treasurer, Vincent Mancini, Esq., 414 East Baltimore Pike, Media, PA 19063 by May 5, 2014.

Please copy and use a separate form for each participant. Space is limited – please register early.

Name _____ Attorney ID No. _____

Telephone Number: _____ E-mail Address: _____

Mailing address* _____

Please check the appropriate registration category and enclose the corresponding fee:

_____ Current PaCCHS member - $40.00

_____ Non-member (includes 2014 membership dues in the PaCCHS)* - $60.00

*Non-members must include their preferred mailing address information above. PaCCHS membership includes invitations to the annual lecture and dinner in September, and other planned CLE events and receptions. For more information, visit www.pacchs.org.